HR70-14

Colonel Taylor raised the question as to whether we would still desire General Willoughby to go [ ] for us in view of recent developments. He noted that Willoughby wanted to leave on or about 18 November. Mr. Larocque stated he would take this matter up with D/DCI and/or DCI.

Mr. Reber reported that:

HR70-14

- b. OCI has requested that memos of conversations between ~~the~~ U. S. and foreign officials be furnished that office. This matter has been discussed initially with State and at first blush it appears that both the Office of the Secretary and Park Armstrong approve. Mr. Reber noted that he will next tackle Defense on this matter.
